

Anna Ryott, Chairperson of Summa

Anna Ryott's professional aim over the last years has been to do everything in her power to fight poverty and climate change through sustainable business.

Today, Anna Ryott spends most of her time working as Chairperson of Summa. Anna is also member of the board of Axel Johnson AB, Norrsken Foundation and UNF Global Entrepreneurs Council. Summa use investments in sustainable companies as a tool to create a better world and at the same time deliver high returns. Recently she worked as deputy CEO at Norrsken Foundation supporting the ecosystem of and investing in impact tech entrepreneurs.

Anna Ryott was CEO of Swedfund – the Swedish development finance institution. She has also worked as secretary-general of SOS Children's Villages, deputy Secretary General for UNICEF Sweden, deputy CEO of Storåkers McCann and as a management consultant at McKinsey.