

Joachim Alpen, Co-Head of Large Corporates & Financial Institutions within SEB

He graduated with a MBA from Uppsala University, Sweden in 1993 and also holds a MA in International Relations from the John Hopkins University, Washington, since 1995.

Joachim Alpen worked at the Embassy of Sweden in Moscow, Russia, in 1996-1998. Following that, he joined ABB as Emerging Markets trader; later also appointed deputy head of trading. Joachim remained at ABB until he joined SEB in 2001. Joachim began his career at SEB in Emerging Markets and has since then held several managerial positions such as Head of EM, Head of Foreign Exchange New York and became Global Head of FICC (Fixed Income, Currencies and Commodities) in 2010. Most recently he was Head of Markets and since 2014 Joachim holds the position as Co-Head of Large Corporates & Financial Institutions based in the SEB's head office in Stockholm, Sweden.

Career

- 2014- Co-Head of Large Corporates & Financial Institutions, SEB
- 2013-2014 Head of Markets, SEB Merchant Banking
- 2011-2013 Head of FICC, SEB Merchant Banking
- 2007-2011 Head of Foreign Exchange, SEB Merchant Banking
- 2006-2007 Head of Foreign Exchange New York, Trading & Capital Markets
- 2004-2006 Head of FX-Sales & Emerging Markets, SEB Merchant Banking
- 2002-2004 Head of Emerging Markets, SEB Merchant Banking
- 2001-2002 Trader Emerging Markets, SEB Merchant Banking
- 1998-2001 ABB Treasury Center, deputy Head of trading
- 1996-1998 Embassy of Sweden, Moscow, Russia
- 1995-1996 ABB Financial Services

Assignments

Member of SEB Group Executive Committee, SEB Group Risk Committee and SEB Group Asset and Liability Committee. External assignment: Board member of Nasdaq Nordic Ltd since 2016.